

Welcome New Board Members

Rochester Area Community Foundation's board of directors added the following two new members at the start of the 2010-11 fiscal year:

Kevin Parker, a native of Rochester, is dean emeritus of the University of Rochester's School of Engineering and Applied Sciences and former director of the Rochester Center for Biomedical Ultrasound. A professor of radiology and biomedical engineering, he also is an inventor or founder of a number of enterprises, and holds dozens of U.S. and international patents. He and his wife Jean, who live in Penfield, have four children.

Mary Worboys-Turner has been involved in leadership roles in public and private education, in finance and in the nonprofit sector. She is board chair of the merged Girl Scouts of Western New York and past chair of the College at Brockport Foundation. She currently sits on the boards of the Salvation Army, Allendale Columbia School, Continuing Developmental Services Foundation and Garth Fagan Dance. Mary has served on the Foundation's John F. Wegman Fund Advisory Committee and continues as a volunteer member of the Scholarship Advisory Committee. She and her husband Scott live in Brighton.

Parker

Worboys-Turner

The leadership team of our board includes Chair Jill M. Cicero, Esq.; Chair-Elect Richard J. Mengel, CPA; Counsel Philip L. Burke, Esq.; Treasurer Nancy E. Catarisano, CPA; Secretary Kathy Nixon; and Vice Chairs Hanif Abdul-Wahid and Ted Boucher.