

Initiatives

The Community Foundation has helped establish several collaborative efforts to address specific community needs. Some of the more formal affiliates have spun off to become their own independent organizations. Our current initiatives include: