Rochester Women's Giving Circle Awards $214,700 in Grants to Support Women and Girls

The Rochester Women's Giving Circle (RWGC) has announced the 10 recipients of its 2021 grants, which total $214,700.

Grants are made to organizations in Monroe County that help women and girls living in poverty to gain the education, training, skills and jobs necessary to achieve economic independence.

This is the 14th year that RWGC has awarded grants, and in that time it has distributed nearly $2 million to nonprofit organizations aligned with the giving circle's mission.

The 2021 grantees and programs are:

Cameron Communities Ministries: Respect and Responsibility for Girls program

Center for Teen Empowerment: Young Women's Leadership and Employment Project

Consumer Credit Counseling Service: Creating Assets, Savings, & Hope (C.A.S.H.) Coach

Friends of the Garden Aerial: Green Visions: Growing Healthy Futures

Girl Scouts of Western New York: Out-of-School Time with Girl Scouts

Judicial Process Commission: Women's Legal Action Project and Support Services

Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach: Women Empowerment Program at Jennifer House

Unity Hospital/Healthy Moms: Project Independence at Healthy Moms

Urban League: Project Families in Transition

Veterans Outreach Center: Female Veterans Self-Sufficiency Program

The Rochester Women's Giving Circle remains committed to partnering with organizations in Rochester that support girls and women in our community. Agencies interested in applying for a future grant can get more information about criteria and the application process at therwgc.org.

RWGC is a community of women who recognize that they have greater strength and potential for positive community impact when they give together. Every member makes an annual donation of at least $1,050 and has the opportunity to participate in the grantmaking process. The money donated each calendar year is granted out the following year. The Giving Circle is an advised fund at Rochester Area Community Foundation.
