The Bullis Family Scholarship is to be used for expenses associated with higher education including, but not limited to, tuition, fees, and books.

Not reporting expenses covered by this scholarship or reporting expenses inaccurately or in a manner inconsistent with the approved allowed uses of the award, could negatively affect current or future scholarship aid from the Community Foundation.

The Community Foundation reserves the right to revoke the scholarship grant if the funds are used for purposes other than approved allowed uses of the award.

Upload this expense report to the Scholarship Documentation Collection Portal as a “follow up” to your Bullis Family Scholarship acceptance documents.
